Service Women's Action Network

December 2, 2011

Dear Supporters,

We are honored that the Nobel Women's Initiative has featured Anu Bhagwati, SWAN's Executive Director, in its 16 Days of Activism Against Gender Violence Campaign. 16 Days of Activism Against Gender Violence is a global annual campaign that aims to bring attention to gender violence and highlights the work of activists all over the world. Featured on Day 7, Anu's and SWAN's work to end sexual violence in the U.S. Military especially resonates with this year's theme, "From Peace in the Home to Peace in the World: Let's Challenge Militarism and End Violence Against Women."

Anu Bhagwati

As the Nobel Women's Initiative has said, "we salute Anu's courage and strength- and will continue to watch as she makes progress towards ending sexual violence within the military." We too are extremely proud to work alongside Anu to fight for justice for survivors of sexual violence.

SWAN News

Documentary filmmaker Kirby Dick's "The Invisible War" featuring SWAN has been selected for the Sundance Film Festival.

The Service Women's Action Network weighs in on the offensive "trou" shirt sold by a West Point alumnus, and USA Today covers the story here.

See Policy Director Greg Jacob's blog post on service women, reproductive rights and his recent trip to Washington, DC.

Please join us and the Nobel Women's Initiative in saluting Anu and her work to promote safety and equality for women.

Sincerely,

Team SWAN

Please consider making a gift to help SWAN end gender discrimination and sexual violence in the military!

About Us

SWAN is a human rights organization founded and led by women veterans. SWAN's vision is to transform military culture by securing equal opportunity and the freedom to serve in uniform without threat of harassment, discrimination, intimidation or assault. SWAN also seeks to reform veterans' services on a national scale to guarantee equal access to quality health care, benefits and resources for women veterans and their families. You can find the Service Women's Action Network on our homepage, on Twitter or on Facebook.
