Community Gardening for Veterans

Sponsored by SWAN and the Manhattan Land Trust

Dear SWAN Supporters,

Military members, veterans, family members and children, service providers and supporters are invited to join the Service Women's Action Network in our first community gardening event. Participation is free and all materials will be provided.

Come learn how to grow vegetables!

Planting day is May 1 from 10 am to 2 pm at:

Carver Community Garden
236-242 East 124th Street
New York, NY 10035
(Take the 4 or 5 train to 125th Street then head east two blocks)

Future gardening days will occur on selected Thursdays and Saturdays from 10 am to 2 pm.

For more information, visit www.servicewomen.org or contact SWAN's Community Outreach Coordinator, Bronwen Tomb, at bronwen@servicewomen.org or (860) 449-4570.
