Service Women's Action Network to Launch 11-11-11 Website to Honor Women Veterans "Women Veterans Day" site features firsthand accounts by women veterans

New York, NY – The Service Women's Action Network (SWAN) announced they will honor women veterans this Veterans Day with the launch of a special website capturing firsthand accounts of women veterans. The site, <http://www.womenveteransday.org>, houses digital stories of women who have served, and will be updated regularly with more women's stories.

With President Obama's recent announcement for full withdrawal of troops from Iraq, the United States will be welcoming home thousands of women veterans whose reintegration and trauma issues are often unique from their male peers and whose voices are often not heard.

SWAN is encouraging supporters of women veterans to share the site and ensure that their stories are a part of our country's Veterans Day celebration this year.

*SWAN is a national human rights organization founded and led by women veterans. SWAN's vision is to transform military culture by securing equal opportunity and the freedom to serve in uniform without threat of harassment, discrimination, intimidation or assault. SWAN also seeks to reform veterans' services on a national scale to guarantee equal access to quality health care, benefits and resources for women veterans and their families.
