SWAN Holds Holiday Party for Veterans and Their Families

Organization Thanks Service Members

New York, NY – The Service Women's Action Network will host a holiday party Tuesday December 20th from 6 pm to 9 pm for veterans and their families. The event will take place at 22 E. 30th Street between Madison and 5th Avenues. Veterans and service members are welcome and encouraged to bring their children and families for this evening of food, gifts and live music by the Red Hook Ramblers. There will be gifts for children in attendance.

All are welcome, and RSVPs are encouraged through info@servicewomen.org or 212-683-0015 x 324. Members of the press are also welcome and can contact SWAN's Communications Director Katy Otto at the information above.

With troops coming home this holiday season, SWAN is honored to provide a forum for celebration and thank you for our veterans.

SWAN is a national human rights organization founded and led by women veterans. SWAN's vision is to transform military culture by securing equal opportunity and the freedom to serve in uniform without threat of harassment, discrimination, intimidation or assault. SWAN also seeks to reform veterans' services on a national scale to guarantee equal access to quality health care, benefits and resources for women veterans and their families.
